

Jane Lengel

Jane Lengel has served in the Ohio Army National Guard for more than 35 years as an enlisted Soldier and commissioned officer, achieving the rank of colonel. Jane has held numerous staff, special staff, and command assignments. She deployed to Kosovo and Bosnia, and later to Iraq in Operation Iraqi Freedom (OIF). Jane has been a strong advocate for military veterans and their families for many years. She is a member of the ODVS Women Veterans Advisory Committee, Ohio National Guard Association and National Guard Association of the US, Military Officers Association of America, Reserve Officers Association, and VFW Post 4931. She is currently training as a Hometown Support Volunteer for H.E.R.O.E.S. Care (Homefront Enabling Relationships, Opportunities, and Empowerment through Support). H.E.R.O.E.S. Care is a support network for post 9/11 service members, veterans and their families available before, during, and after deployment. She is honored to serve on the leadership team of MILVETS, and is working to expand MILVETS' community support and outreach through local volunteers and corporate partnerships.
